In any judicial proceeding challenging a determination by the Architectural Control Committee and in any action initiated to enforce this Declaration in which an abuse of discretion by the Architectural Review Committee is raised as defense, abuse of discretion may be established only if a Reasonable Person, weighing the evidence and drawing all inferences in favor of the Committee, could only conclude that such determination constituted an abuse of discretion.

H. Inspection. The Committee may inspect work being performed with its permission to assure compliance with these restrictions and applicable regulations.

A. In General. The Association or any party to whose benefit these Restrictions inure, including the Declarant, may proceed at law or in equity to prevent the occurrence or continuation of any violation of these Restrictions, or to force compliance with these Restrictions and Covenants, together with the right to collect costs and reasonable attorney's fees, but neither the Declarant, nor the Association, shall be liable for damages of any kind to any person for failing either to abide by, enforce, or carry out any of these Restrictions.

B. Delay or Failure to Enforce. No delay or failure on the part of any aggrieved party to invoke any available remedy with respect to a violation of any one or more of these Restrictions shall be held to be a waiver by that party (or an estoppel of that Party to assert) of any right available to him upon the occurrence, reoccurrence or continuation of such violation or violations of these Restrictions.
